

TWELVE JOURNEYS

through a career in architecture

Diane Haigh

Di Haigh has pursued many paths as an architect. She will present the ideas that shaped projects as diverse as the refurbishment of the Royal Festival Hall, the insertion of a bronze cone at The Royal Observatory, repairs to Arts and Crafts houses designed by M H Baillie Scott, research into the environment of primary schools – and more! Come and share these reflections on the development of architectural thinking over the last fifty years.
