

A cinematic approach to everyday life and architecture

Jeanne Dielman, 23 quai du Commerce, 1080 Bruxelles (Chantal Akerman, Belgium/France, 1975) -
Ernst Neufert on kitchen standardisation

François Penz

Professor of Architecture and the Moving Image
Director of The Martin Centre for Architectural and Urban Studies
University of Cambridge Department of Architecture

François Penz hypothesises that film constitutes the most comprehensive lived-in building data in existence – a largely ignored and untapped resource. Using examples, he will discuss how cinema has exposed large fragments of our everyday life and created a comprehensive encyclopedia of architectural spaces and building elements.
